Resolution text

From line 163 to 164:

11. 9. ~~Secretary-Generalrecommends to the~~The GA decides on the number of EC members to be elected ~~for~~upon a recommendation by the ~~new~~outgoing EC.

Reason

This amendment ensures that the GA retains full democratic authority over the composition of the EC, while allowing the outgoing EC to make an informed recommendation based on its direct experience with the organisation's workload and needs. It also avoids concentrating procedural influence in the hands of the Secretary General, who is a staff position responsible for the operational management of the organisation and should remain institutionally neutral in decisions concerning the size and composition of the elected political leadership.
